TYTHERINGTON 5ALIVE COLLATION VACANCY

5Alive in Tytherington is looking for someone to count and collate the batches and someone to deliver one small area.

The area for delivery is The Orchard, Church and Church Cottages. The collator counts into batches, takes to the Village shop and places them with appropriate newspapers for volunteers to distribute.

We are very grateful to Alison Studley who after 20 years is relinquishing this task. She is very happy to help and show a new volunteer the ropes! If anyone would be able to help in this (one or two people) please phone Alison on 411954.

Thornbury/Yate Food Bank are in need of more volunteers for various tasks. If you think you could help please speak to Doug Stephenson who worships at Cromhall.

How about this for the 'funny'

Have you heard the story of the youngster taken to church by his mum and dad...Clergy started to preach the sermon and was just getting into his stride, when he heard the said youngster say to his dad - "Daddy if you pay him the money now, will he let us go home?"

Thought for the week:

I've been pondering – well actually moaning lately about the lack of manners we find in our society today – and NOT always with young people, who can often undeservedly get bad press. The driver who sees you waiting for a parking space about to be vacated and drives in even as you wait! The people who push in front of a queue as if they are the only people who matter. Then I heard a mum explaining one of the hard 'knocks' we face as children the other day to her little one – "it is sad that you've not been invited and we'll do something else on that day, but no you cannot ask to go, because it is their choice to invite you or not...." ...what, where I don't know....but a youngster being taught so gently and so well, that we are not always Number 1 and that other people are to be respected for their decisions and their choices! I wanted to shout out to her "Well Done" - couldn't of course, but I did stop moaning!

Please remember in your prayers the families and friends of those whose anniversary falls at this time ...

Sylvia Parker and Rita Watson.
